Nomination of shares on death

In the event of the death of a member, the repaid value of their shares plus accumulated interest will normally be added to their estate for probate purposes. However, shares in Wray Village Store valued at £5,000 or less can be transferred to a nominated person on death, provided the member has completed the nomination form below. The nominee will have the full rights of the deceased member. Trustees will need to be appointed for a nominee under 16 years old. Wray Village Store Ltd will respect members' wishes in so far as the law and our Rules permit.
